

To Whom It May Concern:

Thank you for your interest in our company and products.

3D Molecular Designs, LLC, is a small molecular education company. We specialize in researching, developing, manufacturing and marketing hands-on molecular science models and kits for educators and providing custom models for researchers, educators and museums or other informal science education venues. 3D Molecular Designs is the sole source for many of its products including select products, products in final development and field testing, products made on rapid prototyping machines, small production products, posters, product quantity options not selected by distributors and other products as noted below. The list of sole source products begins on the bottom of this page and continues on pages two and three. We also customize products to fit customers' specific needs.

In addition to accepting direct orders from customers for all of our products, 3D Molecular Designs has authorized U.S. distribution companies to distribute some of our products.
